

I'll Love You When

In honour of the birth of Zak Whitecliff on July 14, 2001

Soft and Liling

Words and music by Shannon K. Knight

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, 6/8 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The piece consists of four lines of music. The first line has three measures with chords F, Bb, and C. The second line has two measures with chords F and Bb. The third line has three measures with chords C, F, and Dmin7. The fourth line has four measures with chords F, Bb, C (with a triplet), and F. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words split across lines. A double bar line with repeat dots is at the end of the fourth line.

F B \flat C

I'll love you when the sun comes up and while you run and I'll love you when we cud - dle close as the moon rides

F B \flat

play. I'll love you when you take a nap and high. I'll love you when you drift to sleep and

C F Dmin⁷

all through - out the day. And then I'll love you all through - out the night.

F B \flat C $\text{\textit{3}}$ F e - ven more; that's what { mom - mies } are for.

dad - dies }